

Service to the Profession Award

Recognising an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the Financial Services sector and has gone above and beyond to champion for or to enhance the profession.

Nominees do not have to be a member of Financial Advice NZ.

The Judging Criteria

- The breadth of the contribution by the individual
- The degree of positive impact the individual has made
- The extent to which the individual has been able to motivate, utilize and incorporate others to foster positive outcomes
- The demonstration of the highest level of integrity in the way they conduct themselves.

The Judging Process

1. Submit a written nomination outlining the contribution to financial services the individual has made.
2. Three judges review and select the award winner.
